Due date for final returns and balance owing for deceased individuals

Period when death occurred	Due date for the return
January 1 to October 31	April 30 of the following year
November 1 to December 31	Six months after the date of death

If the deceased or the deceased's spouse or common-law partner was self-employed, the following due dates for final returns are as follows:

Period when death occurred	Due date for the return
January 1 to December 15	June 15 of the following year
December 16 to December 31	Six months after the date of death

*Any balance owing would still be due April 30th of the year after death or six months after death if death occurred between November 1 and December 31.

RRSP and RRIF at death

The deceased is deemed to have received the fair market value of all property held in a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP) or Registered Retirement Income Fund (RRIF) at the date of death. No amount is included in the deceased's income if the designated beneficiary or heir is an "eligible beneficiary" and certain conditions are met. An eligible beneficiary who acquires rights in an RRSP or an RRIF has several options for deferring the income tax on those amounts.

The following table summarizes the rules:

Heir/Beneficiary	Amount taxable at death	Transferable to: ¹
		RRSP/RRIF	Annuity
Spouse	Nil ¹	Yes	Yes
Child or grandchild financially dependent because of an infirmity	Nil ¹	Yes	Yes
Child or grandchild financially dependent not because of an infirmity	Nil ¹	No	Yes ²
Other	FMV	No	No

1 Certain terms and conditions may apply.

2 The annuity may provide for payments for a period of not more than 18 years, less the age of the child or grandchild when the annuity is purchased. Annuity payments must start no later than one year after the purchase.

Transfer from an RRSP or RRIF to an RDSP

It is possible to transfer funds held in RRSP or an RRIF at the time of death to a Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) of a child or grandchild who was financially dependent on the deceased because of a mental or physical disability. However, the amount transferred must not exceed the beneficiary's RDSP contribution room of $200,000, and is not eligible for the Canadian Disability Savings Grant/Bond.

Transfer from RRSP or RRIF to a Lifetime Benefit Trust

It is possible to transfer funds held in an RRSP or an RRIF at the time of death to a Lifetime Benefit Trust (LBT). A LBT is a trust established for the benefit of a child or grandchild who was financially dependent on the deceased because of a mental or physical disability. The LBT is a personal trust under which a surviving but mentally infirm spouse of a deceased individual or a mentally infirm child or grandchild of a deceased individual is the sole beneficiary of any income or capital of the trust. The trustees may pay amounts out of the trust to the beneficiary but the trustees are not required to pay out all the income of the LBT to the beneficiary. A Qualifying Trust Annuity (QTA) must be purchased by the LBT with the RRSP/RRIF proceeds coming from the deceased spouse, parent, or grandparent. The QTA must be for a fixed term equal to 90 years minus the age of the taxpayer who is the sole beneficiary of the LBT.
